

Correction of Liquor Practices Sought by Assemblyman Chapel

By Charles Edward Chapel
Member of the Assembly

My Assembly Bill No. 25 reads "Every person who sells or serves alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises to any person who is accompanied by a person under the age of 21 years is guilty of a misdemeanor."

I have introduced some amendments and on April 27, the bill will be heard before the committee at 3:00 p. m.

"B-Girl" Bill

My Assembly Bill No. 29 regarding "B-girls" in saloons was given a preliminary hearing on April 13. The new state director of liquor control has stated that my bill is excellent in its present form but can be strengthened and clarified by amendments. The bill will be heard in Committee on April 27.

Churches and Schools

My Assembly Bill No. 501 says:

"The board is specifically authorized to refuse the issuance of on-sale retail licenses for premises located within 600 feet of churches, hospitals, schools and children's public playgrounds."

The present law says "the immediate vicinity" instead of "600 feet" as my bill states. I chose this distance because the State Board of Equalization for about 20 years has said that "immediate vicinity" could be interpreted to mean 600 feet in most cases.

The reason many of us think a definite distance is necessary is that many abuses and scandals have resulted from the State Board being allowed to use its own discretion with the result that saloons were located close to churches, schools, hospitals, and playgrounds in many cases. In some cases, the Liquor

Recital Here Features 63 Young Accordion Players

Sixty-three youngsters took part in the Vacation Varieties of 1955, presented at Civic Auditorium last week, with Myron Floren, accordionist, as featured guest.

As an accordionist with the Lawrence Welk band, Floren played "Long, Long Ago," his theme song, and several numbers. Second soloist was Tom Owens, student of Floren, now featured at the Bird Cage Theater at Knott's Berry Farm.

After the show, a reception was held for Floren at the Betty Thomas Studio. Refreshments were served, including a giant cake, with four measures of "Long, Long Ago," across it.

Carolyn Hess, Dennis Collins, Pamela La Turner, Michael Schrader, Tom Green, Pat Somers, Carol Whittington, Barbara Wilson, Steve Polenke, Mary Jane Holly, Susan Glass, Veronica Carter, Regina Carlton, Judy Bishop, Gene Birdsong, Sharon Deering.

Fred Gardner, Michael Draper, A. J. Rhoads, Linda Lewis, Patty Davis, Kenneth Witham, Karon Witt, Sandra Richards, Delores Lomas, Grace Acalin, Arlin Green, Gladys Hilton, Col.

Apparently figuring that "the early bird gets the worm," lines of buyers for homes in Miraltes-Knolls started to form at 11 p. m. the night before sales began at the project.

First in line was a Mrs. Whittaker, who wore a large number "1" around her neck. Finding the buyers there, William McCaffrey, tract manager for the McCarthy Co., found blankets, sandwiches, and coffee for the lady and other early birds.

Leon Hilton, Gary Beech, Beverly Metzner.

MRS. WHITTAKER... First In Line

IT'S ON THE CAKE... Mrs. S. F. Jenkins points out the fact that the cake has the first bars of Myron Floren's theme song, "Long, Long Ago," on it in pastry. Betty Thomas and Floren look on, at a reception given in his honor after a recent accordion recital here.

GOD
at home

God is everywhere! And yet we speak of a church as God's House.

Well, man is everywhere. His planes soar above the clouds, his mines tunnel through the earth, his rails span mountains and plains, his ships ply the seven seas.

And yet, every man cherishes the one place he calls home. He cherishes it not for its location or appearance, but for the love and companionship he has experienced there.

In similar spirit man has thought it no blasphemy to call each church the House of God. For He Who made man in His own image must feel the same compelling attraction for the scene of His communion with those He loves.

The greatest honor you can bestow on a friend is to invite him into your home. Each hour of worship God invites you into His.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
